WWII AIRPOWER EXPO 2016

November 4-6, 2016
New Orleans Lakefront Airport

WWII AirPower Expo 2016 will gather historic 1940s warbirds and the veteran aviators who flew them for a three-day celebration of airborne might. Presented by The National WWII Museum, the Commemorative Air Force, and the Greater New Orleans Sports Foundation, the Expo will offer thrilling aerial demonstrations, aircraft tours, authentic WWII-era entertainment, hands-on activities for adults and children alike, and the opportunity to meet some of the men and women who helped win World War II. Touch the planes and talk to the heroes—November 4 to 6 at New Orleans Lakefront Airport.

WARBIRDS IN REVIEW

Every hour on the hour throughout the third annual WWII AirPower Expo, a warbird or WWII vehicle will be the focus of a historical presentation by a moderator, historian, or pilot. The vehicles will then perform maneuvers, and the planes will take to the air for a thrilling fly-by.

SPOTLIGHT ON “THE FLYING TIGERS”

Commanded by Claire Lee Chennault—whose early life was spent in Louisiana—The Flying Tigers were known for daring maneuvers and a high level of combat success. The unit's P-40 Warhawk aircraft were instantly recognizable by their iconic shark-face paint motif. Up to four P-40s will be the focus of a 2:00 p.m. Flying Tigers Showcase every day of the Expo.

BOOT CAMP

Do you have what it takes to pass boot camp and be the best? The WWII Obstacle Course can be navigated by both children and adults, so come test your skills!

INSIDE THE HANGAR

Join us inside Wedell Hangar for performances by the Victory Belles, WWII veterans sharing their war experiences, a VIP area for All-Access Pass holders, a Hands-on Activity Area with all-ages educational activities, and AirPower Expo souvenirs at the Museum store.
